

Moon Link

Rising huge above Stockholm summer's lamp hangs full greet's Kayla in fifth floor window Toddler reaches for night's pumpkin to cuddle with her bear

She would tug the friendly globe draw helium balloon in close but Mama says
You can't take the moon to bed
Grandpa will look for it in Canada

Hiking home from Kungsholmen park our skygazer spotted Grandpa's Moon Alerted mid-day, lifelong luna follower
In six hours will catch Kayla's Moon
